General Rules:

A. Restrictions. Restrictions may be placed on donations; however, a clear statement of the restrictions must be included on the pledge form (i.e., if the donation is available for a limited time, usable in a limited area cannot be used in the place of an existing schedule or standing order). All packages must have a minimum market value of $50. Donations that provide a discounted price on a future purchase are not allowed. That is, donations must be complete and not require the buyer to spend additionally in order to use the product/service.

B. Minimum Bids. Items receiving less than the minimum bid will be returned to the donor. You may designate the minimum bid and retail value if you choose, or the Auction Task Force will determine fail levels.

C. Bidding. All items will be offered to the highest bidder. If an on-line bid is received within the last 30 minutes of the auction, the bidding on that item will be extended until the end of the silent auction at the gala.
